ACCOUNTING

Michael T. Hanley

Managing Partner
Merl & Hanley

The head of this Smithtown-based CPA firm focuses on assisting small business owners and self-employed individuals minimize audit risk, reduce tax liability and spend less time on bookkeeping-related activities. His expertise includes helping start-up and home-based businesses select the best type of entity for their business model. In just three-and-a-half years, Hanley has grown his business from a sole proprietorship with five clients to a firm with a seven-person staff, more than 250 business clients and over 400 personal tax clients.
